

Steve Cremean- Chief Engineer

Mr. Cremean has 37 years of natural gas experience. He spent 23 years with the Columbia Gas System Service Corporation Research Department. His responsibilities included conducting and managing gas research for all Columbia Gas companies in the areas of gas distribution and gas transmission operations, gas utilization and gas supply. Steve spent 8 years with the Columbia Gas Distribution Companies as an operations engineer, project engineer and materials engineer. His responsibilities included distribution engineering in Columbus, Ohio for one year, and special distribution projects and materials standards in a five state area for seven years. Steve has been with UTI for six years.