

John Vassaux – Senior Engineer

John has 39 years of natural gas experience. He spent 31 years at Columbia Gas of Ohio with 21 years in measurement and regulator (M&R) station design. John joined UTI in 2000 and is responsible for UTI's major M&R projects. In addition to his work at UTI he also teaches M&R station design courses at the Gas Technology Institute. John holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering Technology (Mechanical) from Franklin University and served as a member of the AGA Distribution Engineering committee.